

Summer 2025 | Billing Information

Payment for tuition, fees, and related charges are due May 16, 2025. Failure to pay the bill by the due date may result in changes to your course schedule, see billing policy.

NYS residents save up to $2942.50 with a Certificate of Residence from your home county.

Summer 2025 classes begin May 29, 2025

How your charges are calculated:

- Tuition charges are based on the number of credit hours in which you are enrolled. Full-time students are charged a flat rate for 12 credit hours and above. Part-time students are charged per credit hour. For specific tuition amounts, please see the TC3 website.
- Non-resident tuition is also reflected on your statement. If you are a NYS resident, please submit your Certificate of Residence. Once we receive your Certificate of Residence, nonresident tuition charges will be removed. If you are NYS resident and do not submit the Certificate, you are responsible for non-resident tuition charges.

For more information on the Certificate of Residence see:

- <https://www.tompkinscortland.edu/admissions/certificate-residence>.
- Charges for fees are based on your enrollment. You can view the fee definitions and amounts at, <https://www.tompkinscortland.edu/admissions/mandatory-fees>. You can view the full fee schedule at, <https://www.tompkinscortland.edu/sites/default/files/documents/24-25%20Fees.pdf>.
- You can check your myTC3 account for real time information regarding your student account balance. myTC3 – Self Service – Finances -- Balance
- Applicable charges for housing and meal plans are also a part of your tuition statement.
- If you have completed your FAFSA, your financial aid (applied or anticipated) will show on your tuition statement. If you are expecting financial aid and it is not reflected on your tuition statement, verify that you have fully completed your FAFSA and no additional information has been requested. You may check your financial aid award by logging into your myTC3 account.

Your tuition statement is a reflection of your enrollment at the time the statement was generated

- Any change you make to your schedule may have an effect on your statement. This includes adding or dropping a course as well as changing sections of the same course.
- If you make changes to your schedule online or in person, you are responsible for checking your myTC3 account for updated information regarding your student account balance.
